Kids Improv:

Where Imagination Takes Center Stage

Hello <<First Name>>,

Spring has sprung and the kids are bursting with energy. Looking for a fun and engaging way to channel that excitement? Our Kids Spring Improv Class is the perfect way to get the winter wiggles out and get their creative juices flowing.

Improv isn't just about laughter — although there's plenty of that too — it's also a fantastic way for kids to develop valuable life skills. They'll learn to stretch their minds and their muscles in a fun and supportive environment.

We can't wait to see your child blossom on stage or wherever their imagination takes them!

More Upcoming Shows

Comedy is back on Friday when Pop Scholars come through for an evening of wicked smart, stupid funny comedy. After a stellar showing at Kalamazoo Improv Fest, this comedy favorite will bring the “fast-paced, edge-of-your-seat, what-just-happened-exactly, face-and-ab-hurting-kind-of-funny Improv Comedy.” They will be sharing the stage with new-to-the-scene improv duo Daddy's Boys; the Maurer brothers from Joyce II Men.

Riddled with English jumps on stage Saturday, and then Blunder Bus and Joyce II Men will be here the following weekend bringing hilarious hijinks for your entertainment.
